Psychiatric Rehabilitation
Association

Psychiatric Rehabilitation
Foundation

Founded In 1975, the Psychiatric Rehabilitation Association (PRA) and Psychiatric Rehabilitation Foundation (PRF), grow and train the recovery workforce while promoting wellness and recovery. The association works to enhance the practice of psychiatric rehabilitation, establishing these services as integral to community-based treatment and leading the recovery movement. PRA/PRF is the premier source of learning, knowledge and research for the psychiatric rehabilitation profession, and provides resources, education, ideas and advocacy to enhance the power and performance of the recovery workforce. PRA represents more than 1,300 individual and organizational members, representing 8,000 psychiatric rehabilitation professionals.

About the 2016 Recovery Workforce Summit

The 2016 Recovery Workforce Summit is presented by PRA and PRF, in partnership with the Massachusetts Psychiatric Rehabilitation Association (MassPRA) and offers a comprehensive line up of in-depth psychiatric rehabilitation training and enhanced networking opportunities and special events, to provide attendees with the tools they need to help others more effectively.

The Summit provides high-level education sessions for the entire psychiatric rehabilitation workforce including but not limited to: Practitioners, employees from the Veterans Administration (VA) and Office of Mental Health (OMH), Primary Care Providers, Executives, Case Managers, Educators, Occupational Therapists, Social Workers, Psychologists, Psychiatrists, Counselors, Residential Service and Managed Care employees, Administrators, Policy makers and Clinicians. The Summit is your premier opportunity to be a part of an eclectic energy-charged community, focused on the growth of psychiatric rehabilitation in both quantity and quality.

Why Sponsor?

The Recovery Workforce Summit will attract approximately 1,000 individuals globally, who are part of the psychiatric rehabilitation community. PRA serves as the global focal point for people and organizations involved in psychiatric rehabilitation - from practitioner to CEO, academic to government, for profit and nonprofit. As a sponsor, you will have the opportunity to share your products and services with an audience of professionals focused on helping others and doing their jobs more effectively.

96% of attendees

found the 2014 & 2015 Summits to be valuable uses of their organization's time and resources, making the 2016 Summit the "must attend" event for individuals and organizations involved in psychiatric rehabilitation.
