

Call for Presenters

CASRA Spring Conference

May 2 –3, 2017

Crowne Plaza, Concord, CA

Recovery through Economic Empowerment and Community Connection

The CASRA conference is a great place to find inspiration , get up-to-date information and share ways in which recovery has informed programs, policies and practice. Would you like to share your innovative practices with the CASRA community? Click here to go to the CASRA website for Presenters Application. Submissions due March 15.

Registration is now open—just click here.

Keynote Speaker

Mark Salzer, Ph.D.

CASRA is thrilled that Mark Salzer will return to California for the Spring Conference! He is an internationally recognized researcher and speaker on Community Inclusion of persons with lived experience of mental health challenges and Director of the Temple University Collaborative on Community Inclusion.

Plenary Speaker

Len Statham, MS, CPRP, CBP

Len is an expert in the Individual Placement and Support (IPS) model of supported employment and assist organizations in integrating peers into the workforce. As a person with lived experience in the mental health system, his experience informs and strengthens his work on employment issues. He has taken the lead in implementing the We Can Work campaign, a grassroots campaign that helps New Yorkers with psychiatric disabilities build hope and capacity to achieve meaningful employment and economic integration.

