

NJPRA 2018 Fall Conference
November 15, 2018
Pines Manor,
Edison, NJ

NJPRA Conferences are New Jersey's primary event designed to meet the networking, training, education and advocacy needs of the psychiatric rehabilitation community. Since its founding in 1980 the Association has addressed policy, provided training, offered educational programs; all in support of the advancement of the practice of the art and science of psychiatric rehabilitation in community mental health services.

We are pleased to offer an array of sponsorship and advertising opportunities in support of the 2018 Fall Conference: The Drive to Thrive: Commitment, Endurance and Sustainability. Over our thirty-eight years of convening conference we have been joined by thousands of administrators, directors, managers, practitioners, service recipients, family members, State partners and other stakeholders.

The opportunities listed herein offer high-value, high-touch opportunities at reasonable cost. They have been segmented as follows:

- Premium Sponsor categories (geared to provider agencies and include conference tickets),
- Premium Vendor categories (up to two representatives who will not be attending the sessions),
- Meal Sponsorships,
- Conference Proceedings Advertisements
- Vendor Table

Your questions and inquiries are always welcome via phone at 732-646- 5772 or email to khiggs@njpra.org.

Thank you for your consideration and we look forward to seeing you on November 15, 2018.
